

Articles of Incorporation of The Collective Foundation for Structural Integration

The undersigned, a majority of whom are citizens of the United States, desiring to form a Non-Profit Corporation under the Non-Profit Corporation Law of the state of Georgia, USA do hereby certify:

First: The name of the Corporation shall be The Collective Foundation for Structural Integration Corp (CFSI).

Mission Statement of The Collective Foundation for Structural Integration: Following the principles, fundamental practices and lineage of Dr. Ida P. Rolf; we as a collective commit to consistently create an environment for individuals to learn and experience the human potential movement as it applies to the integrity of human physical structure, self-awareness, consciousness, emotional and psychological well-being, and these relationships to gravity. CFSI is dedicated to the art and science of the Rolf Method of Structural Integration, teaching this vocation as a craft, furthering fascial research, development of approved licensure in all states, and maintaining the highest exemplary standards for Structural Integration. CFSI highlights representation of the collective Structural Integration community with integrity in the foundation of fellowship. Transparency is tantamount to advocacy, empowerment, and accountability.

Second: The place in this state where the principal office of the Corporation is to be located is the City of Augusta, Columbia County.

Third: Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, artistic, educational, research and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. Exempt-activity revenues are primary sources of revenues. Exempt-activity revenues include admissions fees, revenues from merchandise sold or services performed, or facilities furnished in any activity related to your tax exempt purpose. Educational and training in the art of the Rolf Method of Structural Integration: the instruction or training of the individual for the purpose of improving or developing their vocational craft capabilities, and the instruction of the public on subjects useful to the individual and beneficial to the community. Scientific. To be a scientific organization described in section 501(c)(3), an organization must be organized and operated in the public interest. Therefore, the term “scientific,” as used in section 501(c)(3), includes the carrying on of scientific research in the public interest.

Scientific facial research in relationship to anatomy, physiology, kinesiology, embryology, and fascial behaviors as the organ of structure and conductor of neural memory. Neurological Fascial research not limited to motor memory, shall include trauma memory and physiological manifestations of emotional and psychological trauma, correlates of self-awareness, and individual abilities of processing PTSD utilizing the Rolf Method of Structural Integration.
